

Janice C.

Janice learned to square dance while living in Japan in the 1990s. The friendships and experiences she formed as a member of Yokohama Sunny Coast Square Dance Club helped lead her eventually to Glenview Squares in the early 2000s. After going through lessons with James, the club asked them to serve as “Head Angels.” Janice has been on the GVS board ever since.

When not square dancing or working on publicity, outreach or events for Glenview Squares, Janice can be found writing articles about restaurant kitchens as part of her freelance work. Other ways she keeps busy include but are not limited to:

- Looking after the Cha cats and dogs & a few feral kitties
- Keeping her garden in order
- Volunteering for C.A.R.E. (animal shelter in Skokie)
- Picking up & distributing pet food donations for C.A.R.E.
- Picking up & distributing flower donations for Bloom n Toss flower rescue
- Fermenting new types of food (ask her about fermented mustard and ketchup recipes)
- Adding pages to her art journal
- Growing square dancing by educating new callers through the Chicago Caller School
- Working on the 2022 National Square Dance Convention (Evansville, Ind., in June 2022)
- Writing postcards to voters
- And so on and so forth
